Our research shows . .

That in 2020 over 80% of our regular customers had moved from planning with a printed catalogue to planning online. We strongly urge all music teachers and school administrators to register, for the following important reasons:

- 1) We hope that our catalogue will be a convenient reference tool for some quick ideas, but our website can give you so much more: detailed product reviews, advice, plenty of images and demos to see and hear the instruments.
- 2) Registering is free, no obligation, and simple with just eight fields to complete. Go to www.starland.co.uk/how-to-register
- 3) This is the only way that you will see the latest Education prices, as they are not visible to unregistered visitors to the Starland website
- 4) Once registered, you can use our unique "Request Quote" service. This gives you direct contact with our Advisory Team, who look at your proposed purchase, make helpful suggestions, try to unlock further discounts, and send you a written quotation and discussion document. Ideal for attaching to a bid or grant application. All free of charge, no obligation – it's just what we do!

Terms & conditions

Starland Autumn 2020/2021 (published September 2020) catalogue replaces all previous catalogues and as such terminates all previous offers. With such a large catalogue of items it is inevitable that from time to time there will be errors in pricing caused either by our mistake or simply manufacturers' price rises. As such, price and availability is subject to change without notice.

PAYMENTS AND ACCOUNTS Credit accounts are normally automatically given to institutions such as schools, colleges, choirs. You can also pay for purchases by cheque, BACS, credit and debit cards, PayPal, Amazon checkout. Take It Away credit and various finance and leasing options are available also.

TITLE TO GOODS Title to any goods supplied at any time to the customer by Frederick Hyde Ltd shall not pass to the customer, notwithstanding delivery of any goods or any documents representing them, until payment in full for any and all such goods supplied and all other amounts on any account whatsoever due from the customer to Frederick Hyde Ltd has been made in full by the customer.

RETURNS We want you to be very happy with the service you get from Starland. Therefore, if the goods you receive are faulty please return them to us in their original condition within 7 days and we will either repair or replace them. If the goods you receive are not what you ordered, please return them to us in their original condition within 7 days and we will either replace them with the goods you ordered, or refund the cost of the goods and carriage. Please call us before returning any goods. We cannot accept returned goods without prior notification. We recommend that you use a recorded delivery service for all returns. Orders are accepted on a firm sale basis only. Starland does not operate an approval service for books or musical instruments, unless organised in advance and in writing. Where products are returned without having booked in the return, goods may be subject to a 20% restocking fee.

NON-DELIVERY OF GOODS

If your goods are not delivered to you within 7 days of the invoice date please notify us immediately, otherwise we cannot accept responsibility for the lost goods.

DAMAGE IN TRANSIT Any claim arising from damage in transit must be made to Frederick Hyde Ltd within 3 days of receipt of the goods. Please check the cases and contents immediately upon receipt, and before signing for them. Goods seen to be damaged should be signed "Damaged in transit" and packaging materials should be preserved for inspection. Damaged goods must be reported within 3 days of delivery. If unsure, please sign for goods as "unchecked".

VAT AND OTHER TAXES Books and sheet music are zero-rated for VAT in the UK; most other items are rated at 20%. Orders sent to addresses outside the European Union are not subject to VAT. However such orders may be subject to local taxes and customs charges, which will be levied once the package reaches your country. You are responsible for any such charges and if you are unsure you would be well advised to contact your local customs office for further details.

FULL TERMS Our full terms are available on request and all orders are accepted under these conditions of sale. We reserve the right to charge interest on invoices paid outside of our terms.

COMPANY DETAILS Starland Music is a full trading partner of Frederick Hyde Limited, whose registered office is at Frederick Hyde Ltd, Weyhill, Haslemere, Surrey, GU27 1HN, United Kingdom. VAT registration number: GB737057230 Company Registration Number: 3112115 E & OE.

A challenge!

You don't need us to tell you what a challenging year 2020 has been for us all. The Starland Music team have been locked down, but online throughout, providing a service to those who can plan for the future.

Our distribution team have reorganised the warehouse and have never stopped despatching your orders (especially to those practising instruments at home) We send our very best wishes to all our friends and customers, and look forward to your call or email whenever you'd like some help.

Nick Kilby - Managing Director

Our warehouse

Our 22,000 sq.ft. warehouse is situated just 500 yards from our showroom and offices and connected by a peer-to-peer fibre link. We have two raised internal loading bays, piano workshops and piano frame spray shop, temperature controlled acoustic instrument storage facility, and modern distribution packing department. Our team of ten experienced warehouse staff are booking stock in and shipping goods across the UK and further afield.

Purchasing

We manufacture and purchase musical instruments in more than twenty countries – increasingly Latin America and the Caribbean, the Middle East, South Asia, and the Far East.

We go to great lengths to purchase products from ethical and cost effective sources. Transportation costs and taxes can affect the bottom line so we take care to order efficiently, minimising hidden costs. We are committed to sustainable procurement, taking into account the impacts of environmental, economic, and social factors along with price and quality.

We are working with the help of our supply partners to minimise our purchases of single use plastics (SUPs) and are always looking to source better and more sustainable choices for our products.

Our service

Our fulfilment and dispatch operation has been developed and refined over many years. We work extremely hard to make sure every order is processed and dispatched as quickly as possible, more often on the same day it is received – order tracking and email notification is all part of the service. Every shipment is scanned on entry and exit and monitored by CCTV for extra security and quality control which minimises the chances of human error and ensures near perfect accuracy.

Free storage and call off service

When you don't have space at school it's reassuring to know that we have ample storage room in our secure warehouse. That means you can take advantage of our amazing bulk discounts today and we'll forward the goods whenever you're ready. Contact us for more details.

International shipping consolidation

We also offer a consolidation service where schools can make purchases from various suppliers in the UK but ship the complete order in a single container from our warehouse. Use your own shipping agents and freight management or leave it all to us to arrange.

Free quote service

Call us or email us with your requirements and we will be delighted to offer a detailed quotation for your project. Just tell us what you want, and we'll aim to find the best quality solution at the lowest possible price.

KAWAI

Kawai's passion for innovation extends to electronics where the company created the industry's first digital pianos with real wooden keys, the first action designs that re-create the natural movement and motion of an acoustic piano action, the first built-in CD recorders and the first affordable digital pianos with real wooden soundboards. In its never-ending quest to elevate the art of instrumental craftsmanship, Kawai continues to fulfil its calling as the future of the piano.

MANUFACTURED BY RAT

Give your digital piano the freedom to move

These sturdy piano movers are shaped to fit virtually any model of upright style digital piano. They are particularly suited to models by Yamaha, Roland, Casio, and Kawai, with the traditional front leg design. The high quality castors allow easy manoeuvrability, and their scratch-free wheels protect the floor.

The extra stable design raises the piano just 18mm off the ground. This means your digital piano can easily stay on the castors while in use, maintaining a low ground clearance to aid stability.

Musisca digital piano castors are specially designed with the rear wheel positioned around the back of the instrument to lower the centre of gravity and give additional support.

Non-slip rubber carpets in the dollies protect the base of your digital piano and keep it securely in position. Brakes on the inside wheels prevent the piano moving away from you while you play so you can perform with confidence, even on the most polished of floors!

- Universal fit for all popular digital piano models
- Made from black powder-coated steel with non-slip rubber mats
- Only raises piano 1.8cm off the ground for increased stability
- Swivel wheels with scratch-free rubber tyres and secure brake
- Quality British design and manufacture
- Max. piano feet size: 54cm x 9.5cm (length x width)
- Max. load 150kg

SILENT Piano™

THE TOUCH, THE SOUND, THE SILENCE

Beautiful Yamaha acoustic pianos, fitted with Yamaha's SC2 Silent system allowing silent practice through headphones.

Activate the silent mode and a rail moves between the hammers and the strings to 'switch off' the acoustic piano. Highly sophisticated optical sensor technology then captures the detailed movements of each key, resulting in the beautiful sound of a Yamaha CFX concert grand piano through your headphones.

Not only does the piano sound amazing, there are also 9 other instrument sounds, including grand and electric pianos, strings, organ and harpsichord.

TransAcoustic™

ACOUSTIC DIGITAL SYNERGY

Yamaha Transacoustic TA2

An acoustic piano with a volume control, or a digital piano with strings? Yamaha's latest development stretches the imagination and opens up a whole new world of possibilities.

TransAcoustic is the name we have given to a new breed of piano. At its most basic level, it turns the soundboard into a "loudspeaker". This means that any sound can be delivered through this naturally resonant piano component.

- Groundbreaking new TransAcoustic technology fitted to popular Yamaha models
- TransAcoustic function uses the natural wood soundboard as the speaker for all sampled sounds
- Incredible sound quality in TransAcoustic mode
- Play along with pre-recorded backing tracks
- Play your piano at any volume without the need for headphones

disklavier ENSPIRE

For more than 25 years, the Yamaha Disklavier has maintained a stellar reputation as the world's most reliable reproducing piano. It has won many prestigious awards and remains as popular as ever.

Disklavier ENSPIRE replaces the popular E3 series, and remains the most accurate, high-resolution, fully-integrated reproducing piano system available today. The Disklavier ENSPIRE can recreate the subtlest nuances of a performance, from the softest pianissimo passages right through to the thunderous fortissimos – just as the original artist intended.

- New streamlined design eliminates the control box of previous generations
- Intuitive app enables the ENSPIRE to be controlled seamlessly by iOS and Android devices, PCs, and Macs
- Direct access to more than 500 songs and 6,000 performances that can be downloaded directly to the instrument from the Yamaha MusicSoft online store
- Unprecedented high-resolution recording and playback accuracy
- Integrated DSP servo drive system that monitors key, hammer, and pedal movement and automatically adjusts in real-time to ensure accurate performance reproduction

PIANO ACCESSORIES

Safety castors, School conversions and "A" Frames.

We recommend that safety castors should be fitted on modern case upright pianos in schools, except when they will stay permanently against a wall. We suggest that grand pianos in schools be placed on "A" frames for easy manoeuvrability and tuning stability.

SAFETY CASTORS

FN725 Adjustable safety brackets. Telescopic brackets designed to suit any depth of modern case piano. Fitting is fast and simple and high load twin wheel castors ensure ease of movement. Finished in unobtrusive brown or black (Suggested max load 225kg.) Sold as a pair.

Music ICT and recording studios

Working with you to provide your perfect Music ICT solution

Our Music ICT experts can guide and assist with design and installation. We can provide everything needed to deliver Music ICT classrooms, recording areas, performance spaces and more.

Whatever your needs, we would be happy to visit your school and build a specification based on your individual requirements and specifications.

For a free consultation please call us today.

Elements of the perfect ICT workstation

1 Microphones (pages 53-57)

A microphone allows students to record their own vocal or instrumental part into their chosen music software program.

2 Monitors (page 52)

Good quality monitors are an important part of any studio or mastering setup.

3 Apple Computers (pages 34-35)

Apple computers are the choice for many schools and colleges, with their ease of use and dedicated music software programs. Although some school IT departments may be concerned about adding them to their PC network, we can advise on the best way forward as part of our consultation service.

4 Control Surfaces (pages 53-57)

Control surfaces replicate the on-screen faders and other controls in music software, allowing a tactile method of mixing. Ideal for studios where a final project mix is going to take place.

5 Headphones (pages 21-22)

Headphones are an essential component of any ICT suite or Recording Studio. Although they may cost considerably less than other equipment, choosing the right sort of headphones will make long-term project use more comfortable and manageable. Ask us for advice on the most appropriate type for each use.

6 Desk/Workstation (page 20)

A dedicated music workstation desk will allow ease of access to computer keyboard and mouse, music keyboard and any other equipment, thus improving the working environment for staff and students alike.

7 Audio Interfaces (pages 36-37)

We also encourage our school colleagues to include audio interfaces in the project plans: a good quality audio interface will reduce wear and tear on the computer itself, as well as providing front-facing headphone and instrument sockets, and a volume control.

8 ICT Software (pages 40-43)

We can advise on the most appropriate software for your needs. Whether for notation, composition, recording or as part of an ICT-enhanced curriculum, there are many options available.

9 Keyboard Controllers (page 39)

A controller keyboard can either be a standalone music keyboard - with the appropriate connection to your computer - or a dedicated 'dummy' keyboard that only makes sounds when connected to a suitable computer with music software running. There are many variations in size and functions - so call us for some clear advice and the best prices.

A MIDI keyboard or controller keyboard is typically a piano-style electronic musical keyboard, often with other buttons, wheels and sliders, used for sending MIDI signals or commands over a USB or MIDI 5-pin cable to other musical devices or computers.

The basic MIDI keyboard does not produce sounds by itself. Instead, MIDI information on keys or buttons the performer has pressed is sent to a receiving device capable of creating sound through modelling synthesis, sample playback, or an analog hardware instrument.

PODCASTING

A podcast is an audio story created to share ideas, presentations or music. Schools can also use podcasts to make announcements via their website or to record guest speakers and publish their presentations online.

Podcasts are digital files that can be emailed or downloaded: in addition, most podcasts offer a subscription option, allowing the listener to receive additional content automatically.

The equipment needed for podcasting will depend on a number of factors, including what you already have available in your department (headphones, microphones etc). We can help you design the right system for your needs - just drop us an email or give us a call.

HANDHELD RECORDING

Handheld recorders offer an inexpensive option for quality recording in the classroom or performance area. They will give much better sound quality than a phone or a laptop (unless these have a dedicated microphone connected), and can be good enough in some circumstances to produce CD-quality recordings. To get the best possible quality:

- mount the recorder on some sort of mic stand
- do a quick test recording - and check it - before completing your recording session
- use 'stereo' and the highest possible recording quality setting on the recorder
- use external microphones if your recorder has this option and you have good quality microphones available
- leave gaps at the start and end of the recording to make editing easier.

Mobile Device Recording

iOS Recording (or Mobile Device Recording, if we want to be less Apple-centric) is becoming increasingly popular in schools and colleges, where often pupil devices are available which can be utilised for music activities. Add one or two small and inexpensive accessories, and you can have a powerful recording setup, ideal for recording in class, in a practice room... wherever you need to make a quality recording.

iOS Plug-in Mic Solutions

These products improve on the sound quality offered by your phone or tablet's built-in mic. They plug straight into the lightning port of your device - a really simple solution that gives you superb quality sound instantly.

Single Channel & Guitar Interfaces

You may wish to invest in a single channel interface to record a wider range of sounds. By using an interface, you can use a standard microphone and take recordings of acoustic instruments.

Multi-Channel Interfaces

A multi-channel interface gives you the flexibility to record more than one thing at the same time. Because each sound source has its own dedicated channel, then the sounds can be mixed separately after the event (may require additional hardware to connect to your device).

ANALOGUE MIXERS

Mixers - Making the Right Choice

With the price differential between analogue and digital mixers reducing all the time, schools are wondering which type is best for them. In general, digital mixers offer a cleaner, more accurate sound path for anything that is passing through them. They also sometimes allow sounds to be imported into software through a single cable, much like an audio interface.

For large format mixers with lots of channels, you may still wish to consider analogue, as these can still be slightly cheaper. Analogue desks also usually have individual tone, auxiliary and bus controls for each channel, which makes understanding the signal path a little easier.

CITRONIC MIXERS

Citronic CSM series

Radio mics generally come in three different frequency ranges: VHF, UHF and Wi-Fi. Typically up to 3 different VHF frequencies can be used at the same time. Systems that use UHF are tightly regulated, and operating more than 4 systems will usually require a licence from PMSE Licensing. With Wi-Fi systems you may be able to operate 10 systems at the same time - licence-free - but be aware that some school Wi-Fi networks can cause interference.

2 channel VHF systems

- Ideal for vocalists, karaoke and PA applications.
- Max. 2 VHF frequencies can be operated together
- Unbalanced (6.3mm) and balanced (XLR) audio outputs
- Up to 50m range

Dynamic microphones are, in general, cheaper and more robust than condenser microphones. The sound they reproduce can sometimes be a little 'coloured', meaning that the microphone is affecting the sound being amplified or recorded. But sometimes this can be advantageous, as the microphone can enhance the sound, or help prevent feedback. There are different types of dynamic mic, and in particular, because of their robustness, they tend to be used in locations where sound levels are particularly high, such as with drums or amplifiers.

Condenser Microphones

Condenser microphones will process sounds without adding as much tonal colour as some dynamics do; they tend to be more sensitive, so can pick up quieter sounds more effectively - but are also more prone to damage if dropped!

They usually require a power source: either a battery or a connection to a desk that has phantom power. Like dynamics they can have a number of different uses, from headset to choir amplification, drum overheads to stereo recording.

Small Diaphragm Microphones

Ideal for use with higher frequencies from instruments such as acoustic guitars and cymbals.

Compact and Portable PA Systems

Which PA system is right for my school?

We can advise you on the most suitable system for your needs: however, the following pointers may be helpful:

Channels

Not every channel on a mixer can take a microphone. In general, those channels with XLR (3-pin) connections are suitable for microphones, while other channels will be designed for use with direct-connected instruments or other line equipment such as radio mic receivers or CD players. Remember that if you are using condenser microphones your mixer will need to have a phantom power facility.

Portability

Mixers with built-in amplifiers and most larger speakers tend to be quite heavy; bear this in mind when picking your system.

Power Output

Both the power output from an amplifier, and the power handling capability of a speaker, measured in watts (W), are a rough indication of the overall volume of the system. For a larger venue a more powerful system is usually advised.

Other Features

Look out for additional features such as Bluetooth, AirPlay, graphic EQ or monitor (foldback) outputs as these can add useful functionality

Speakers

PA speakers come in a wide variety of types and sizes, and are either passive (meaning they need to be amplified by a separate mixer amp or amplifier) or active (meaning they have built-in amplifiers - which usually means they also need to have a mains power source). Larger speakers will cope with lower frequencies more effectively, including drums, bass guitar and even full-range playback of pre-recorded music.

Accessories

Don't forget good quality stands, cables, microphones and radio microphones

The Rshield range assists with maintaining a safe work environment, with the intention of preventing the spread of respiratory droplets between people.

The BioScreen has two options for materials:
Clear acrylic - providing 100% visibility
Fluted twin-wall poly-carbonate - allows more privacy

They can be incorporated into any work-space or social environment whilst keeping communication clear.

- The X base is made from flat steel for strength and rigidity without excess weight, making it easy for anyone to move
- The strong base is designed so that the shields can nestle together tightly, perfect for compact storage!
- The strong, epoxy coated T-frame is durable and aesthetically pleasing
- There is no need for any bolts or screws, the easy fix plugs secure the screen to the frame and give you the ability to remove to clean or reuse the plastic at a later date
- The height adjustable stand (1758 - 2122mm) means you can adjust the shield to adapt to any environment
- Overall width of shield 1380mm

The Rshield is our solution to long term bio safety. The BioScreen acts as a physical barrier to aid social distancing and protect people from the spread of bacteria in the air.

ULTRALIGHT STAGING SYSTEMS

Easy to Use An expanding aluminium base and a lightweight staging platform which are quickly and easily assembled by one person. Individual component weights comply with Health and Safety operational guidelines.

Fast & Efficient The folding aluminium tubed base opens and closes in seconds. The location of platforms is quick and simple, requiring minimum time and resources to assemble and disassemble.

Lightweight but Strong Individual components are lightweight, but together they form an incredibly strong unit, which supports a uniform distributed load of 1000kg per sqm.

Portable & Compact Easy to transport and store. Base units fold to less than 2% of their open size. Stage platforms have a depth of only 30mm.

Versatile & Adaptable We offer a wide range of sizes and finishes including a range of carpet colours and vinyl. Valances are also available in a choice of four colours.

How it works

Step 1
Select your riser

Step 2
Holding 2 outer pillars, extend the risers, until fully open

Step 3
Place the deck on top of the riser, ensuring that the corner screws on the riser are located into the holes on the underside of the deck

Step 4
Using the Allen Key provided, secure the deck to the riser

Step 5
Align the completed stage sections and using the Allen Key turn the locking cleats located in the centre of the deck to lock sections securely together. Valances are also available in a choice of four colours.

Wak-a-TUBES

Hollow tubes which can be played with a beater, struck against a hard surface or tapped against each other to create different sounds and a simple harmony. Ideal for playing individually or together in groups - a simple and inexpensive way to introduce children to music.

Tubes are lightweight so easily transportable, and are a simple and inexpensive way to create music as well as being enormous fun.

COLOUR MATCHING NOTE SYSTEM

Remember, Wak-a-Tubes use the same colour system as Percussion Plus bells and chime bars, which can be found in the following pages of this catalogue.

Percussion Plus Bells

PERCUSSION
Plus

PP271 8 hand bells - diatonic range

Set of 8 notes, C64-C76. Ideal for school groups and classroom music ensembles. Great quality colourful bells and are in tune and easy to ring. Set of eight individually coloured hand bells in the key of C major. £25.92

Desk bells

PP273 8 desk bells - diatonic range

Set of 8 notes, C64-C76. Played by simply pressing on the top of the handle. Precision tuned with a lovely clear tone. Great for children and adults for individual and group playing. £28.00

PP274 5 hand bells - chromatic range

Set of 5 notes, sharps and flats, to fit to PP271 to make a fully chromatic set. £28.00

Combi bells

Combi bells are very versatile as they can be rung as hand bells (shake the bell) or tapped like desk bells (press the top of the bell to sound). Younger children can play by arranging these bells on a table and simply tapping the top. Note names are clearly displayed on top of each bell.

The chromatic add-on sets allow for more versatility, enabling you to perform a wider range of music in various keys.

Excellent tone & built to last, these bells are ideal for both children and adults, & can be used individually or for group participation. The bells are housed in safe clear plastic shells, which protect them from damage without affecting the sound.

PP276 5 combi bells - chromatic range

Set of 5 notes, sharps and flats, to fit to PP275 to make a fully chromatic set. £24.74

NEW SLAP DJEMBES

PERCUSSION
Plus

Great drums for all djembe players. Slap djembes are robust and lightweight, so they are simple to transport and carry around. They are weatherproof, making them great for outdoor use.

- Synthetic shell djembes from Percussion Plus
- Heat sealed cotton cloth exterior
- "How to play" directions screen-printed on drum heads
- Synthetic drum heads have a tactile playing surface, giving an authentic feel
- Deluxe rubber no-scurf base protects drum and floor/desk from scratching
- Available in pretuned and superior rope tuned models

HOW TO PLAY

The design on the drum head shows where the hand should strike the drum in order to obtain a fabulous variety of tones, from punchy bass to cracking highs.

When you hit the skin, let your hand bounce back allowing the sound to ring. Sit with the drum tilted away from you to allow the air to move, and the notes to resonate.

THE SLAP

Played around the edge of the drum. Relax your hand and arm, and hit the drum with a slap-like motion. Spread your fingers out slightly when they strike the edge of the djembe.

THE BASS

The best sound is achieved in the centre of the drum. Keep your palm flat and stiff and strike the drum firmly.

THE TONE

Straighten all your fingers so they strike the drum head flat at the same time. Aim to strike the drum so that the joint where your fingers join your hand (at the first knuckle) is at the rim of the drum. Think of your hand as a straight extension of your arm, and you should get a solid 'thud' sound.

Pretuned Slap djembes

- Lightweight and hard-wearing, great for classroom use and also for taking on holiday or to festivals.
- Pretuned drum heads are tightly glued to the drum. They do not stretch, and stay in tune well.
- Supplied with carrying strap, which attaches to fixed metal hoops

Celesta

YAMAHA

Yamaha are one of only two companies in the world that build celestas and they make each heavenly instrument to order.

Their revolutionary piano action design was first produced in 1992 and quickly became the industry standard. They manufacture 3 different models differing in the material used for their hammers (deer antler or felt) and number of keys and pedals.

The celesta has been a member of the orchestra since Mozart scored a part for one in his opera Die Zauberflöte, but they've recently been a hit with jazz musicians too, and have become stratospherically popular on the big screen since John Williams made their ethereal timbre synonymous with the magical world of Harry Potter.

We've sold Yamaha celestas to musicians as diverse as the Boston Ballet and the James Taylor Quartet, and one of our instruments has recently been on tour with the St Andrew's Symphony Orchestra.

CEL56P Celesta 56 keys (C40-G95), Dimensions 105x65x108cm (WxDxH), Weight: 72kg, £15,381.90

CEL56PGLA Keyboard glockenspiel celesta 56 keys (C40-G95), Dimensions 105x65x108cm (WxDxH), Weight: 72kg. £14,979.60

TIMPANI

Majestic timpani are supplied in the 'American' style. This means that the kettles are designed so that the largest one will be on the left hand side of the player. These timpani are uniquely designed to have a flat bottom when the legs are folded up, so they can be stored upright instead of on the head.

Majestic Concert Deep Cambered - Fibreglass

The deep cambered kettle is manufactured from fibreglass-reinforced polyester (FRP). These kettles produce a warm and dark sound.

pBone
BIG DISCOUNTS FOR SCHOOLS

Something new for your classroom!

The revolutionary pBone has brought an intriguing twist to the traditional trombone. With its plastic construction, the pBone has taken the trombone market by storm!

"...plays remarkably like traditional brass instrument!"
Jiggs Whigham

Much lighter and easier to blow than a traditional trombone, the pBone is squarely aimed at the beginner player. The outfit comes with a plastic mouthpiece and gigbag.

The instrument is very easy to keep clean and maintain, you only need to use warm water and traditional slide creams or oils.

A perfect instrument to encourage a younger player into the world of orchestra and brass band playing.

- Small bore (0.500), only weighs 800g
- Easier to hold (ergonomic grip)
- Much more durable than any brass trombone
- Glass-fibre slide
- Free bag included
- Free plastic mouthpiece included or use any normal small-bore brass mouthpiece

Also available in Mini!

pBone mini is a fully functioning, plastic, alto trombone pitched in Eb.

pBone mini is incredibly light and durable and its special mouthpiece makes it easy for the very young player to play. It has a full 7 positions and has been tuned to have a great first octave.

- Dual bore (0.485/0.500")
- Glass-fibre slide
- Free bag included
- Free plastic pBone mini mouthpiece included

Recorder From The Beginning

Our best-selling Recorder Course. John Pitt's hugely successful teaching scheme aimed at 7-11 year olds has a straightforward approach with attractive collections of well-known and original tunes.

The Teacher's books include simple piano accompaniments, guitar chord symbols and performance suggestions for classroom percussion.

CDs provide demonstration tracks and interesting accompaniments

Book 1

The first 6 notes are introduced through a mixture of well-known and original tunes. By the end all the basic rhythm patterns have been covered.

In the 21st century, computers have become powerful enough to run the numerous software programs that simulate professional recording studios. These computers have become known as DAWs (Digital Audio Workstations). A basic setup would include the following equipment!

computer
The heart of your home studio. A computer with a good processor speed and RAM allocation is vital for a smooth-running DAW.

music production software
Software packages come with a wide variety of software instruments, effects and a mixing desk. They have an in-built sequencer which allows you to record, manipulate, arrange and mix all your MIDI and Audio information.

instruments / effects
VST (Virtual Studio Technology, All Audio Units) and RTAS (Real Time Audio Units) are the three main technologies that allow you to run software instruments such as synthesizers, drum machines and samplers within your music production software.

studio monitor speakers
These allow you to hear your music. Active monitors have built-in amplifiers, which passive monitors need to be powered by an external power source.

MIDI controller keyboards
These are controlled by your DAW via MIDI and allow you to play or control the software synthesizers and instruments. They also allow you to control other MIDI peripherals such as mixers, pan, library, etc.

audio interface
A pack of external hardware through which you connect your computer to your studio monitors. They also allow you to connect your external MIDI peripherals. Some interfaces also come with a variety of microphones, instruments and MIDI connections.

Starting with the fundamentals of pitch and rhythm, this workbook takes the reader through basic music literacy such as key signatures, scales, chords and modulation.

£15.99

GCSE Music Composition Workbook

RHG426 GCSE Music Composition Workbook

Whatever your previous experience of composing, or none, this book will guide you through the process of creating musical ideas and developing them into a complete composition suitable for submission as part of your GCSE Music course.

The first section introduces you to the ingredients of composing - techniques that you can apply to any style of music - including rhythm, word setting, pitch, melody, phrase structure, harmony, texture and instrumentation.

The second section offers eight composing projects based on music of different styles and forms, including verse-chorus song, theme and variations, minimalism, musique concrete and film music. Each of these will guide you through the process of writing a piece of music from beginning to end. (NB this is a new edition of RHG418 Music Composition Workbook 1).

Kaleidoscope

Kaleidoscope will save you time! Do you spend hours arranging music for odd assortments of instruments? Kaleidoscope is specially arranged to suit almost any instrumental combination and these varied ensembles are easy and enjoyable too. So much scope for virtually any combination of instruments!

The series is successful with recorders, guitars, percussion and keyboard as well as with orchestral groupings. Whether there are five or fifty players, every Kaleidoscope title will work! Just make sure that melody and keyboard parts are included - all other parts are optional. Kaleidoscope is superb value for money - each set contains a score plus around 50 parts, each one carefully written to suit the needs of each instrument. For example, easy string parts are in first position only whilst easy clarinet parts take care to avoid the break. There are more demanding parts too, for experienced players.
